PluroGen Patent Application Receives Allowance of Claims Notice

(Norristown, Pennsylvania, USA, 15 August 2013) - PluroGen Therapeutics, Inc., a leader in advanced wound care solutions, announced today that its Natural Gel Technology patent application received an Allowance of Claims Notice from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

Patent protection for PluroGel[®] Products can be extended well into 2030 when the patent issues for this new technology. The Natural Gel Technology provides clinically important new features for PluroGel[®] Products.

“The patient success our PluroGel[®] Products are achieving now is well beyond competition. The new features that the Natural Gel Technology provides to PluroGel[®] Products will elevate them to yet another level in performance, providing more value for doctors, clinicians and patients” commented Neal Koller, President and CEO of PluroGen. “Allowance of these patent claims by the USPTO is an important milestone for product protection and enhancement of shareholder value”.

About PluroGen Therapeutics, Inc.

PluroGen Therapeutics, Inc. is a burn, wound, and skin care company providing clinically advanced and superior products from its multiple, patent-protected technology platforms. The Company's primary platform is its core PluroGel[®] surfactant technology which provides products with paradigm-shifting, superior and differentiated Core, Bio-Physical, and Performance Functions resulting in unique and advantaged Multi-Function products. Products based on PluroGel[®] are University developed and are in routine use, having shown superior results on more than 12,000 patients in two different patient populations- severe burns and non-healing wounds. PluroGen's three technology platforms are configured to deliver a variety of medicinal and beneficial compounds covering the six key areas of treatment in tissue management and healing: 1. Cleansing; 2. Anti-Infection; 3. Reduced Pain; 4. Anti-Inflammation; 5. Tissue salvage; 6. Tissue regeneration. PluroGen has a strong new product pipeline and its senior management, operations team, boards and principal investigators are all recognized global, commercial and clinical leaders in PluroGen's target markets of burn and wound care.
