

EXPERIENCE WITH PLUROGEL® PSSD IN CHRONIC WOUNDS

DR. DIETER KLEIN

Internist / Diabetologe DDG

Oberarzt der Medizinischen Klinik II, Klinikum Offenbach

Klinikum Offenbach GmbH

Akademisches Lehrkrankenhaus der
Johann Wolfgang Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main

TREATMENT WITH PLUROGEL® PSSD SINCE APRIL 2011

- 55 Patients (mostly diabetic foot ulcers)
- Treatment with PluroGel® PSSD:
 - No Allergies
 - No Side Effects (even when longer used)
 - No pain
- Secondary Dressing Used: Non-adherent, polyester mesh, contact layer dressing

STATISTICS

- 55 Patients
- 4 Lost in follow up
 - 2 moved in foreign c.
 - 2 died
 - 2 amputation
 - 11 still in treatment
 - 36 wounds closed

OBSERVATIONS

- Overall: Positive Experience
- Wound is always clean when using PluroGel® PSSD
 - No pseudo-eschar
 - Well accepted by patients
 - Easy to use
 - Cost reduction of 30%

OBSERVATIONS

- Cost Savings
- Faster healing
 - Fewer dressing changes
 - MultiFunction Use:
 - Used in all types of wounds
 - Used in all phases of wounds
 - Leads to using fewer other products

PATIENT 1

- Male, 57 yrs. Had wound for 10 years before starting PluroGel® PSSD
- Large and deep wounds have been greatly reduced

START: 19 April, 2011

5 July, 2011

5 July, 2011

12 April, 2013

PATIENT 2

- Male, 63 yrs, Acute Diabetic Ulcer
- We treated for 2 weeks before starting PluroGel® PSSD

START

Week 25
HEALED

PATIENT 3

- Male, 64 yrs, Diabetic Ulcer
- Had wound for 3 months before starting PluroGel® PSSD

START

Week 4

