PluroGen Therapeutics, Inc. Announces

Clinical Paper Reporting Success for PluroGel® PSSD
Accepted for Publication

Norristown, Pennsylvania, 21 August 2014

PluroGen Therapeutics, Inc., leading solutions for wound, burn and skin care with its advanced PluroGel® Biomaterial surfactant products, announced today that the authors of a clinical paper reporting successful results on patients using the Company's PluroGel® PSSD Burn and Wound Dressing received notice that this paper has been accepted for publication by a leading wound journal.

Publication of this paper is a major milestone for PluroGen and PluroGel® PSSD Burn and Wound Dressing because it is the first scientifically peer-reviewed complete clinical study to be published in a journal.

"For PluroGel® PSSD Burn and Wound Dressing to have such a significant scientific support document is an important step forward and valuable asset" commented Neal Koller, President and CEO of PluroGen. "Once published, this article will be a valuable tool to support product use and sales and for obtaining product reimbursement from insurance companies and government payers".
